Professional Virtual Presentations:

Laura is "virtual ready" and uses a variety of technologies with her clients to produce such programs. She has an in-house creative studio with professional lighting, video and audio equipment to give your presentation a high level of technical confidence and substance.

Creative Dynamic and Background in Technology:

Laura always enjoys a creative dynamic so if a client has a new idea, she'll explore it and technically make it happen. Laura is a professional television commentator and was The White House Director of Television prior to becoming the White House Director of Events for the Clinton Administration so, as you can imagine, she is comfortable with technology in a studio setting and producing it as well.

Virtual Speaking Fees:

Contact us directly to discuss virtual speaking fees of which Laura allows consideration during this difficult economic time. Laura's team is also able to arrange a satellite equipped studio if requested. Laura uses a professional production studio out of Chicago weekly for international television appearances and they do this work often and exceptionally well.

All Keynotes are Available as Virtual:

Any of Laura's keynotes and original curated programs are available to be delivered virtually with her same renowned on-stage enthusiasm, motivation and energy.
